

ILLUSTRATION ARTIST OF THE YEAR

Vicky Bowskill

Vicky Bowskill has a passion for creative science communication, helping to increase engagement with environmental projects through impactful visuals. Spearheading the innovative venture known as Inklusive Nature CIC in the spring of 2024, Vicky brings to the table a unique blend of artistic prowess and scientific acumen, honed through her extensive journey as an illustrator, ecologist and storyteller. What distinguishes Vicky as an exceptional illustration artist is her ability to bridge the gap between science and society with her visuals. Collaborating predominantly with researchers, NGOs and community groups tackling societal challenges, Vicky’s work serves as a catalyst for sparking curiosity and developing understanding among diverse audiences.

The judges praised the numerous applications of the artistic endeavours undertaken at Inklusive Nature by Vicky Bowskill. At the heart of her artistic repertoire lies captivating sketchnotes and vibrant visual summaries, which have proven instrumental in amplifying the reach of research papers, projects and events. Beyond mere illustration, Vicky’s sketches serve as inclusive tools for co-creating research priorities within underrepresented groups, cultivating a shared vision that transcends barriers and drives real world impact.

“

Vicky Bowskill is an exceptional illustrator and ecologist, bridging science and society through engaging visuals and inclusive storytelling.

”

www.inklusive-nature.com
vicky@inklusive-nature.com